

FEDERAL UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY, AKURE

General Studies Department

Information Retrieval (GNS 103)

First Semester Examination, 2013/2014 Session

Answer all questions in the answer booklet provided

Time: 50 minutes

1. Information about latitudes and longitudes can be found in a _____.
 - a. Yearbook
 - b. Journal
 - c. Guide
 - d. Annual
 - e. Gazetteer
2. In order to be able to operate a machine, consult a/an _____.
 - a. Directory
 - b. Annual
 - c. Manual
 - d. Index
 - e. Yearbook
3. _____ gives brief summaries of the content of journal articles.
 - a. Textbooks
 - b. Directories
 - c. Conference proceedings
 - d. Abstracting journals
 - e. Indexing journals
4. Identify the odd one out of the following:
 - a. Encyclopedia
 - b. Dictionary
 - c. Atlas
 - d. Annual
 - e. Journal
5. A reference tool that contains a collection of maps is called _____.
 - a. Gazetteers
 - b. Atlas
 - c. Catalogue
 - d. Travel guide
6. One of the following is an example of printed form of recorded knowledge.
 - a. Indexes
 - b. Microcards
 - c. Microfiche
 - d. Slides
7. A typical example of a general encyclopedia is _____.
 - a. Encyclopedia Americana
 - b. Entomology Encyclopaedia

- c. Encyclopedia of Mathematics
 - d. International Encyclopedia of Economics
8. All but one of the following is not a serial publication.
- a. Encyclopedia
 - b. Journals
 - c. Magazine
 - d. Newspapers
9. A visitor to a new destination needs to consult _____ for hotel accommodation.
- a. directory
 - b. almanac
 - c. bibliography
 - d. dictionary
10. Gazetteer is an example of _____
- a. government document
 - b. Statistical material
 - c. Travel guide
 - d. Geographic material
11. The relevant source needed to review the events of the past year in Federal University Of Technology of Akure is _____
- a. yearbook
 - b. annual
 - c. abstract
 - d. dictionary
12. _____ is another name for annuals.
- a. Encyclopedia
 - b. Yearbooks
 - c. Manuals
 - d. Gazetteers
 - e. Travel guides
13. Circulation Unit of FUTA library performs all these services except:
- a. Reference services
 - b. Registration of new users
 - c. Reservation services
 - d. Lending services
14. Libraries can cooperate in the production of databases through _____.
- a. software
 - b. shelving
 - c. weeding
 - d. networking
15. Libraries attached to firms, government departments, ministries and hospitals are called _____.
- a. School libraries
 - b. Public libraries
 - c. Research libraries
 - d. Special libraries
 - e. National libraries
16. The library which is most available to the citizens of a community is _____.
- a. General library

- b. Archive library
 - c. Public library
 - d. National Library
17. Services rendered in the university library include all but _____.
- a. assigning International Standard book number
 - b. reading and borrowing facilities
 - c. provision of sitting and studying space
 - d. photocopying services for library users
18. _____ is the same as electronic library.
- a. Virtual library
 - b. Visual library
 - c. Digital library
 - d. Options a and b
 - e. Options a and c
19. Which unit in the library provides the accession numbers of books:
- a. Serials
 - b. Acquisitions
 - c. Circulation
 - d. Cataloguing
20. All the following are major merits of GNS 103 except:
- a. The beauty of a library building
 - b. Information literacy for lifelong learning
 - c. Research
 - d. Identify, locate and use information for academic activities
 - e. Exposure to different information sources and resources
21. _____ is not a unit in the University Library, FUTA
- a. Research, Government publications and Special Documents Unit
 - b. Africana Unit
 - c. Multimedia Resources Unit
 - d. E-Resources Unit
22. The main component of a call number is _____.
- a. accession number
 - b. subject number
 - c. title number
 - d. author number
23. _____ is located at the bottom left hand side of the catalogue card.
- a. Call number
 - b. ISBN number
 - c. Accession number
 - d. Reference number
 - e. Page number
24. One of this is not a kind or type of catalogue
- a. Classified catalogue
 - b. Divided Catalogue
 - c. Card catalogue
 - d. Union Catalogue
25. The Dewey Decimal Classification Scheme arranges all knowledge into _____ broad subject categories.

- a. 15
 - b. 10
 - c. 25
 - d. 20
26. In the Library of Congress Classification Scheme "L", "S", "T" and "M" stand for _____ in that order.
- a. Science, Agriculture, Technology and Medicine
 - b. Agriculture, Science, Music and Law
 - c. Law, Science, Technology and Mathematics
 - d. Education, Agriculture, Technology and Music
27. An OPAC has one of the following characteristics:
- a. It is online
 - b. It is found on a 3" by 5' card
 - c. The entries in it are arranged alphabetically
 - d. It has limited access points
28. Library of Congress classification scheme uses _____ notation.
- a. a numeric
 - b. an incomplete
 - c. an alpha-numeric
 - d. a combined
29. One of the combinations below is an example of a type of library catalogue.
- a. Omnipotent and Omnipresent catalogue
 - b. Classified and Dictionary catalogue
 - c. Uniform and Endform catalogue
 - d. Union and Unit catalogue
30. OPAC users can get information about the library holdings through the following except
- a. title
 - b. subject
 - c. accession number
 - d. classified number
 - e. alphabetically by author
31. Which of the following number is not found on a catalogue card
- a. Publisher's number
 - b. Accession number
 - c. Call number
 - d. number of pages
32. All these are library softwares except:
- a. SLAM
 - b. Alice for Windows
 - c. Cutter Table
 - d. X-Lib
33. _____ is a list of information materials in a particular collection.
- a. A catalogue
 - b. Classification
 - c. A biography
 - d. A bibliography
34. Library automation is the use of IT applications to accomplish the following library tasks except:
- a. Acquiring books in the library

- b. Shelving
 - c. Cataloguing and Classification
 - d. Registering library users
 - e. Charging and Discharging borrowed materials
35. A large collection of data stored in a computer system that can be found and used easily is known as _____.
- a. online data
 - b. online files
 - c. journals and books
 - d. database
 - e. fields
36. Wikipedia is _____
- a. a print encyclopedia
 - b. an online encyclopedia
 - c. a search engine
 - d. a directory
37. A URL address is used to
- a. locate a website
 - b. locate a residential address
 - c. locate a domain name
 - d. locate a search engine
38. A volume of a journal is ready for binding when _____.
- a. all the issues are complete
 - b. the issues and index are available
 - c. all pages are available
 - d. all index are complete
 - e. all articles and volume numbers are complete
39. Which of these is involved in a search strategy:
- a. Reading every book available on the shelf
 - b. Copying relevant information verbatim
 - c. Underlining all the relevant information in the textbook
 - d. Identification of all the key words for search purpose
40. Referencing helps the researcher to do one of the following:
- a. paraphrase
 - b. avoid plagiarism
 - c. identify errors by the author
 - d. increase the number of pages
41. When evaluating a website for quality during research, all the following factors should be considered except:
- a. Authority
 - b. Currency
 - c. Institution the website is affiliated to
 - d. Time of download
42. All but one of the following is not a reason for inclusion of library tour in the teaching of GNS 103: Information Retrieval.
- a. To familiarize students with the information resources in the library
 - b. To allow students to be able to know the various sections of the library so as to know where to obtain information
 - c. To force students to use the library
 - d. To inculcate library skills in students so as to make them lifelong users

43. In a standard book, an index is _____.
 - a. for identification of author
 - b. part of the book preface
 - c. an alphabetical listing of words and their location in the book
 - d. the author's profile
44. All of these technologies are available in the University Library except
 - a. Library Management Software
 - b. Online Repository
 - c. OPAC
 - d. Online databases
 - e. Sequential Management Repository
45. The Great Soviet Encyclopedia is strongly biased to _____.
 - a. British events
 - b. African events
 - c. American events
 - d. Russian events
 - e. None of the above

Supply the answers only to the following open-ended questions in the answer booklet provided

46. Encyclopaedia Britannica has only _____ volumes.
47. A journal belongs to _____ class of library information resources
48. Theses and Dissertations in the University Library FUTA are located in _____ unit of the library.
49. A letter obtained from a user's library that permits him or her to make use of other libraries is known as _____.
50. Addresses and detailed information about the City University of New York can be obtained from _____ in the Reference Unit of the library.
51. A short description of a book written at the back cover of the book for promotional purpose is _____.
52. A medium for communicating research findings by scholars is called _____.
53. The rooms at the entrance of the library where users can keep their bags are called _____.
54. A reference material that gives sketches about Ban Ki Moon in the University Library is called _____.
55. _____ is a characteristic of reference materials.
56. _____ is a type of material found in the Multimedia Unit
57. The twin processes involved in organizing library resources for easy retrieval are _____ and _____.
58. Emerald, AGORA and TEEAL are some examples of _____.
59. The classification schemes commonly used in public libraries is _____.
60. The ordering and purchase of new books is the responsibility of the _____ unit.